

James Gutterman, FSA, MAAA is currently an actuary with the United Healthcare Insurance Company in Hartford, Ct. He has over 30 years of actuarial experience, primarily focused upon group insurance coverage for all types of Life, Accident, & Health benefits. Mr. Gutterman previously had lengthy tenures at both The Travelers Insurance Company followed by the New York State Insurance Department.

Mr. Gutterman has been a member as well as held leadership roles in various Society of Actuaries, American Academy of Actuaries, and Actuarial Standards Board committees. He has also spoken to or been a panel member at various SOA and local actuarial club meetings, as well as speaking to outside organizations, concerning various actuarial and public policy topics. Mr. Gutterman is a graduate of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, holding both a B.S. in Mathematics and an MBA.