

Julia Philips

Julia Philips is a fellow of the Society of Actuaries and a member of the American Academy of Actuaries.

She has been a life and health actuary for the Minnesota Department of Commerce since 1995. Her responsibilities include reviewing annuity, health, and life insurance policies and rates for compliance with state statutes, reviewing the financial soundness of life and health insurers, and providing technical advice on health care issues to the Minnesota state legislature.

Her private-sector experience includes 10 years at a major health insurance company and a stint as a consulting actuary at Milliman, Inc.

Ms. Philips has been very active in the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC), representing Minnesota's commissioner on a variety of committees, task forces, and working groups. She has chaired the NAIC Accident and Health Working Group and Health Risk-Based Capital Working Group for several years.

She also chairs the Editorial Advisory Board for Contingencies, the magazine of the actuarial profession. She is a former member of the Board of Governors of the Society of Actuaries.

Ms. Philips received a B.A. in mathematics from UCLA and an M.A. in mathematics, with a minor in statistics, from the University of Minnesota. She lives in Minneapolis with her husband, a retired actuary.
